Love Is A Stranger

WORDS & MUSIC BY A. LENNOX & D.A. STEWART

The musical score is written for piano and voice. It begins with a treble clef, a common time signature (C), and a key signature of one flat (Bb). The piano accompaniment features a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and a more complex melody in the right hand. The melody consists of eighth and sixteenth notes, with some triplets. The lyrics are: "Love is a stran - ger in an o - pen car to tempt you in and drive you far a - way." The score is divided into four systems. The first system has a C chord diagram above the treble clef. The second system has a C chord diagram above the treble clef. The third system has a C chord diagram above the treble clef. The fourth system has an F chord diagram above the treble clef. The piano part continues with a steady eighth-note bass line and a more complex melody in the right hand.

The musical score is written for guitar and piano. It features a key signature of one sharp (F#) and a common time signature (C). The score is divided into several systems. The first system shows a guitar introduction with a D7sus4 chord diagram and a triplet of eighth notes. The second system continues the guitar melody with various chords (A, G, A, D, A, G) and includes a repeat sign. The third system marks the beginning of the 'CHORUS' with the lyrics 'Would I lie to you—'. The fourth system continues the chorus with the lyrics 'would I lie to you hon - ey, now would'. The piano accompaniment consists of a steady eighth-note bass line in the left hand and chords in the right hand.
